Public (Military) Department.

Measures undertaken by Government to give assistance to political sufferers—(1) Employment in the Community Development Department.—The Government have directed that persons who took part in the national movements leading to the country's Independence, be appointed, wherever possible, to posts sanctioned for the implementation of the Community Development and Khadi Development Schemes, for which appointment is made by direct recruitment by exempting them, if necessary, from the provisions of the rules, if any, regarding age, educational qualifications, etc., and if they are otherwise considered suitable for a particular post. The Government have also sanctioned a scheme for the appointment of suitable political sufferers and members of their families as Social Welfare Workers in National Development Blocks.

(2) Educational concessions.—The Government have sanctioned from the school-year 1957–58, the grant of full fee concession to the children of political sufferers. This extends to collegiate and professional courses as well. In respect of school-going children, this concession is admissible to the children of those political sufferers whose annual income does not exceed Rs. 1,200 and in the case of college-going persons, this concession is admissible in respect of political sufferers whose annual income does not exceed Rs. 1,500.

(3) Assignment of lands.—Political sufferers were being given first preference in the matter of assignment of Government land, free of cost, irrespective of whether they were landless poor or not. Rules provide for the assignment of ten acres of dry land or five acres of wet land to each political sufferer. The land assigned was not liable to land tax for the first three faslis. In the case of political sufferers who had died during the national struggle or afterwards, their families were also eligible for the land grant. The last date for the receipt of applications from the political sufferers for the grant of land under this scheme was fixed as 31st March 1948. This scheme was discontinued in 1952.

At present, the political sufferers are eligible for assignment of lands free of cost, only if they are also landless poor persons, likely to engage themselves in direct cultivation. They are now eligible for assignment of five acres of dry land or 2½ acres of wet land.

One of the conditions imposed originally was that they should not sell or alienate the lands assigned to them for a period of ten years, on pain of cancellation of assignment. The Government have recently cancelled this restriction.

(4) Financial assistance to political sufferers.—The Government have no scheme for the grant of financial assistance to political sufferers. The Government of India have, however, placed Rs. 3 lakhs at the disposal of the Union Home Minister as discretionary grant to afford relief in the form of non-recurring grants to those who have served the nation in the political, social or other fields and are in need of special assistance. Political sufferers in this State are also eligible to apply for assistance from this grant.

10th February 1959]

(b) The conditions for the recognition of the schools are that there must be a felt need for the schools in the locality, reflected in the enrolment in the schools and children waiting to be enrolled, and the schools should have adequate and suitable accommodation and satisfactory sanitary facilities, adequate play area, furniture, equipment and play materials. The managements should have financial stability and standing and qualified teachers should be appointed.

(c) The grants for such schools are to be fixed by the Director after a consideration of all the circumstances of the case. One-half of the net expenditure on admissible items, including dearness allowance, is, generally, sanctioned as grant to such schools.

(d) Educational concessions granted to the children of non-gazetted officers, teachers and others are not extended to the children studying in such special schools as these are all luxury schools.
